

Fulbright-NATO Security Studies Award

As part of the Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program, the Fulbright-NATO Security Studies Award aims to foster awareness and understanding of NATO and to increase the level of debate on peace, security, and defense related issues. This award funds post-doctoral researchers, professors and professionals to conduct research and/or lecture at a U.S. institution for a period of three months in fields of study with a connection to NATO, including but not limited to cybersecurity, military history, nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation, peace and security, security studies, and transatlantic studies. This award is supported by the U.S. Mission to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Eligibility

- Hold citizenship in a NATO member country (excluding the U.S.)
- Demonstrate proficiency in English
- Hold a minimum of a doctoral degree (PhD) or other terminal degree
- Demonstrate academic excellence or an outstanding personal or professional background

Benefits

- Scholarship of €9,000 for 3 months
- J-1 visa sponsorship
- Pre-departure support
- Travel stipend of €2,000
- Health benefit plan
- In-country programming
- Prestigious title and access to alumni network

Apply

Submit your application online between September 15 and December 1 for a program starting in the following academic year. More information about this grant can be found on fulbrightschuman.eu.

For questions, please email info@fulbright.be.

This award is funded by a grant from the United States Department of State. The opinions, findings and conclusions of selected candidates are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the United States Department of State.

FULBRIGHT
Schuman Program
BELGIUM / LUXEMBOURG / SCHUMAN